

National Homeless Persons' Memorial Day

December 21, 2021

The winter poses extreme hardship for inadequately housed low-income men, women and children in Boulder.

The spirit of the holiday season of giving provides an opportunity for affirmation and renewal regarding the commitment to end homelessness.

December 21st has been designated National Homeless Persons' Memorial Day by the National Coalition for the Homeless and the National Health Care for the Homeless Council, and is so recognized by cities nationwide.

In this season of generosity and sharing, residents of Boulder are encouraged to commit themselves to promoting compassion and concern for all brothers and sisters, especially those who are poor and homeless.

In remembering those who have died on the streets, the cause of ending homelessness is kept urgent as is the city's commitment to preventing such deaths in the future.

The City Council of the City of Boulder, Colorado, declares December 21, 2021 as

National Homeless Persons' Memorial Day
