

Midterm Check-In Agenda

Hosted in Council Chambers, public welcome to join in-person, recorded. Either day may transition to a virtual format depending on road conditions.

February 23-24, 2023

Day 1: February 23 from 6-10 p.m. (converted study session)

- 6:00 – Welcome and overview of agenda and objectives, ice breaker (Heather Bergman, Peak Facilitation)
- 6:20 – Staff report out of 2023 citywide workplan priorities (City Directors) including
 - Top workplan items by department
 - Wildfire mitigation
 - Council priorities
- 7:45 – Break
- 8:00 – Continued staff presentations and/or council questions and discussion

Day 2: February 24 from 5:30-8 p.m.

- 5:30 – Continue council discussion and reflections on workplan priorities
- 6:30 – Role and future use of study sessions
 - Staff presentation on current role and scope of study sessions
 - Council discussion on emerging issues as future study session topics. Council Members may email emerging topics for discussion to Heather. Existing emerging issues include:
 - Ballot measures
 - Economic security
 - Childcare
 - Housing security
 - Police oversight ordinance changes